BiodivSourcing
Promoting biodiversity through sustainable development

COMPANY DESCRIPTION

Sustainable Development is no longer an option but a reality. Businesses, governments, local communities and institutions need to work hand in hand to achieve this. An important part of sustainable development is the sustainable use of biodiversity. BiodivSourcing aims to support you to use biodiversity sustainably, helping to work towards a better future.

BiodivSourcing offers advisory services on biodiversity management to ensure sustainable sourcing of biodiversity. We support companies (big or small businesses) to improve a full integration of biodiversity issues in their day-to-day practices.

Description of the annexed documents:

PROGRESS IN ACTIVITIES UNDERTAKEN TO PROMOTE UEBT

Through the UEBT membership BiodivSourcing is committed to the Ethical BioTrade Principles and Criteria.

Implementation of the commitment to the Ethical BioTrade Principles and Criteria

BiodivSourcing promotes these Principles and Criteria as the basis of its work. However, working mainly on projects related to strategies and advises, and being a very small enterprise, we will report on the actual implementation of the Ethical BioTrade P&C as soon as we will work on supply chains and/or get bigger as per our activities.

Activities undertaken to promote UEBT and Ethical BioTrade

BiodivSourcing support companies such as DSM, Prod'Hyg, Cosmetic International Ingredients, Sederma and CRODAROM, CLARINS, ISEAL Members towards improving their activities and commitment related to biodiversity and sourcing looking at the Nagoya Protocol implementation, UEBT membership, Tool development, diagnostics, etc.

Funds invested in Ethical BioTrade Projects

BiodivSourcing did not develop such specific projects, though no specific funds has been invested. However, BiodivSourcing invested quite a lot in outreaching clients and promoting Ethical BioTrade practices.
